

Aiken (S.C.) Sep 3rd 1860.

To Barry Gray Esq

My Dear Sir;

I venture to trouble you a great favor. Enclosed, you will find 2 letters, directed, the one to Bayard Taylor, the other to Mr J. B. Aldrich.

I possess no means of ascertaining the addresses of these gentlemen, but ~~knowing~~^{thinking} that in all probability, their direction is known to you, I take the liberty of requesting you, to forward my letters to them.

From a long acquaintance with the "Home Journal", I feel, almost as if its Editors were personally my friends.

Hence, I presume to ask your assistance in this matter.

Very Respectfully,

My direction is, Paul H. Hayne.
